DIRECTIONS AND PARKING

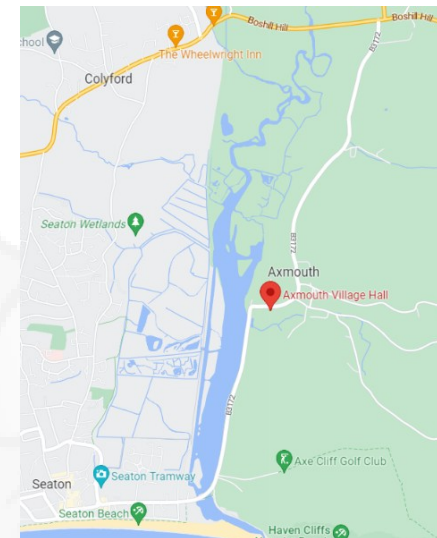

From the West on the A3052, continue past the turning to Seaton by the Tower Services petrol station and head down the hill through Colyford and in a mile turn right on the B3172 signposted for Axmouth and Seaton. Follow this road into Axmouth and the hall is on the left opposite the Harbour Inn.

From the North, take the A358 from Axminster through Musbury to the junction with the A3052. Turn right and in a few yards turn left sign posted Axmouth and Seaton. Follow this road into Axmouth and the hall is on the left opposite the Harbour Inn.

There is some parking at the village hall and on-street parking in and around Axmouth.

Please enquire if requiring transportation to and from Axminster Railway station.

The venue is directly opposite two pubs and is less than a mile from the town of Seaton on the Jurassic Coast – a designated World Heritage Site. As well as traditional beach-side facilities, the town is famous for its tramway and wetlands centre.
